WHAT THE KID CAN LEARN

- Handling a piece in a progressively independent way
- Methods of studying
- Improve the focus and concentration
- Listening education
- The basis for the piano studying

Learning to play an instrument is a slow process that requires a strong will and perseverance, but above all it is a great way to express the kids' creativity. The course wants to offer the basis of piano practicing and a strong support based on the pupil's level. To learn the piano is necessary a long term plan, where the pupil is followed by teacher.

Long-term lessons packages are available at
